Environmental Law Enforcement Training Workshop to be held May 17 in Lafayette

BATON ROUGE – An Environmental Law Enforcement Training Workshop will be held Wed., May 17, 8:30 a.m. to noon at the Rosa Parks Transportation Center, 101 Jefferson Street, Lafayette, LA 70501.

The workshop will be a unique opportunity to hear from federal, state and local law enforcement regarding environmental crimes and environmental laws. Speakers will provide important information regarding the laws and actions regarding illegal dumping and burning, water pollution, littering and air pollution.

The event is free and open to the public, but law enforcement officials, justices of the peace, constables, state and city prosecutors, elected and appointed officials, environmental managers, code enforcement officers, public works directors and sanitarians from Acadia, Lafayette, Vermilion, St. Martin and St. Landry Parishes are encouraged to attend.

The workshop is being hosted by Keep Louisiana Beautiful, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Criminal Investigation Division, the Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries' Enforcement Division and the Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality's Criminal Investigation Section.

To register, please RSVP by sending an email to Susan Russell at srussell@keeplouisianabeautiful.org.
